John E. McCall Claims Texas Bride Wednesday

Of interest throughout Southern California, Texas and the South is the announcement of the wedding of Mrs. Ruth C. Pletcher, Harlingen, Texas, and John E. McCall, 2114 Arlington Ave., Torrance, which took place Wednesday morning, Sept. 12, at 11 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

Yesterday's marriage climaxed a lifetime friendship of the bride and bridegroom whose families were neighbors in Corpus Christi, Texas.

The bride has been visiting in Los Angeles with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Crowe.

Mr. McCall is a native of Mississippi and practiced law in New Orleans. He came from New Orleans to Los Angeles in 1929 and to Torrance in 1936. He was city attorney of Torrance from 1938 to 1947.

Mr. McCall is the father of Edward McCall, chaplain with the United States Army stationed in Germany and Mrs. Irving Skaar of New Orleans, who were both educated in Torrance.

For her wedding the bride wore a Dior blue sheath dress with a jacket. Her small hat was of white feathers and she wore a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Crowe served as her attendant wearing a yellow gown with a small matching hat. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mr. Crowe stood as best man.

The Rev. C. M. Northup, church pastor, officiated at the vow exchange. After the wedding the newlyweds left for La Jolla and San Diego for a honeymoon.

Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends at 2114 Arlington Ave.
